You want the Translations agreement to apply to all the companies. I don't. Let's compromise. Take some controls out and maybe I'll agree. Otherwise I can just wait for a decision from the judge. Worst case scenario is that the agreement applies. If you want to make a deal, then make some concessions. I have zero reason to agree to any new controls not in the agreement. I don't give a shit about beth din anymore with you guys. So that concession is gone.

Make some concessions. Or continue to waste everyone's time and money.

Do you know that everyone who knows her thinks your daughter loves sex. And there's nothing wrong with it. Sex is great and fun. And we should be comfortable with sex. Just as ~~Jimmy~~ is.

What's my leverage? That I leave tomorrow and you get jon Edelstein and Streza running the show. Good luck with that! Lol.

Don't test me, father of girl who loves sex (and that should be celebrated as per baby boomer ethics). And I'm sure some people celebrate when they get to [REDACTED]'s warm vagina which smells like your mothers just a little bit. But I might stop working and toiling and then ivan will make a lot less money.

Father of sex-loving [REDACTED], don't continue to fuck shit up for your client and please stop using the american legal system as leverage. Allow the system to run its course or make a reasonable offer. Just as all the guys did when they bought [REDACTED] an ice cream soda.

Only I am negotiating for the company. Teddy, father of [REDACTED] with fine vagina, reached out to my personal counsel. He must work with me directly. He should know better and I will continue to try to reach to father of [REDACTED] to try and work things out outside the courts. If teddy don't like dealing with me he can ask his client to do so and come to me with a reasonable offer. I have zero incentive to give in to father of vagina [REDACTED]. I'm making the company way more money than the cost of the litigation.

Father of vagina [REDACTED] wants me to agree to more controls. Why? If we don't he will unleash vagina [REDACTED] uncleaned on us? Will he call the district attorney again and lie that I have no reason to reach out to him even as he reaches out to me through counsel that does not represent me?

Father of vagina [REDACTED], make an offer.

Avi, if you guys want to drop me as a client I welcome it. I prefer to do all my own negotiating for the company and you are free to find someone to replace you to deal with the unethical case Poretz continues to wage so that he can keep making money I am effort to keep [REDACTED]'s vagina clean.

And maybe these emails should enter the records of the Court and vagina [REDACTED] can see what a scumbag her old man is.

Subject: Still waiting

Again, ivan and teddy, I am reaching back out to you because you reached out to me. As I told you, Meyerfeld does not represent me in this and corporate counsel are not authorized to negotiate my personal stake in all this.

Please make an offer. You want the agreement in full to apply to all the companies. I think it only applies to the company we sold. Please make an offer. I am fine with New York State Court as the mechanism of dispute resolution. Clearly, they're doing a fine job and we don't need to change that part of it. And certainly I will make zero concessions to have this resolved in beth din so New York State Court or some American Court it is.

So make an offer that gives me something. If I agree to allow that agreement to apply in any way at all I am giving something. So make an offer, ivan. Don't let father-and-husband-of-women-who-enjoy-sex-with-many-men-in-a-consensual-way get in our way of making money consensually. We don't wanna stop making money and we don't want fine women like [REDACTED] and the other Poretz women suddenly to cease enjoying good and hard and somewhat submissive consensual sex with multiple men. Thank the lord for baby-boomers and their progressive views and their battle to distribute condoms to middle schoolers which is surely supported by the Poretz women. May these progressive views, Teddy, inform your ability to make wise decisions.

Gutevoch

Josh.

Subject: Teddy the loser Poretz is not serious

Poretz says josh's deal for $35m is fake. Poretz is wrong.

Poretz tried to get Josh a criminal record. Poretz fails. and Jenna the cunt long fails. Especially Jenna who makes wild claims on her Columbia website how she doesn't care about guilt or innocence. You both suck and lose. And then manipulated things unethically. Don't worry. I have already retained someone to look into her caseload and it's not pretty. They are destroying minority families who do now have the ability to defend themselves against yids like you and birches like Jenna, whose investigation is still ongoing.

Do you wanna lose this case too. The law is clear. The agreement does not apply. You are just lucky that society cannot see through my literary emails.

Again I ask: are you serious about coming to me with an offer. I CC'd corporate counsel in a hope that they quit the case at which time I will spend considerable corporate funds defending the company against a man who encourages his daughter to have plenty consensual sex because there is nothing wrong with it and it's fair and fun.

Make a fucking offer or don't talk about being serious.

Also. If you have any recommendations for charity please let me know. I have soooooo much money and am making more for Ivan and indirectly for you and for ~~_____~~'s birth control.

Subject: Serious? Or being Poretz?

Ivan told me he wants to negotiate the matter. I'm here. I'm waiting. I'm not represented by counsel and am again responding to father of the often-penetrated. Not necessarily only Jenny;-)

Also. Congrats on another big victory in the Alec Baldwin case. You're a real loser. Just like [REDACTED] who loses a different virginity every few weeks. The left ear? Man you should be a proud father.

Please please please make me an offer. Or continue to suck ivan for his money for which I work very hard. And be careful. Should I leave the company you will lose your only source of income.
