Hi Greg,

When do you expect to return your mark-up? I just want to manage my client's expectations.

As for option 2, my clients are not interested in that arrangement. As I said previously, in the event we can't reach an agreement, my clients are willing to dissolve the partnership, quitclaim the footage to Anthony and part ways on the terms contained in my email of June 6.

Thanks, and have a nice weekend.

Adam
