This webpage is being presented to you as an on going effort by ACS Education Services to keep our borrowers informed about the many options available in keeping your student loan current.

Level Payment Plans: These are designed to allow you to make payments of equal amounts throughout the payment period. A fixed monthly payment amount is calculated over the term of the loan. This plan provides the least amount of interest accrual over the life of the loan.

Extended Repayment Plan: This payment plan is designed for borrowers with loan balances that exceed $30,000 and those borrowers who had no outstanding balance on their loan as of October 7, 1998. The repayment term under this payment plan may be extended for up to 25 years. ACS offers a choice of either a Level or Graduated Plan under the option.

Graduated Plans: These offer lower payments during the first years of repayment with increasing monthly payments over time. A monthly payment amount is calculated over the term of the loan with the lowest payments in the first two years and highest in the last two years. Payment amounts increase at 24 month intervals during the repayment period.

Income Sensitive Plans: These plans allow monthly payments to be based on your income. Payment amounts are calculated based on your gross monthly income and are adjusted annually.

The Income Based Repayment (IBR) Plan: This plan is available to those experiencing a partial financial hardship. The IBR Plan takes into account your loan balances, income and family size. The IBR plan is granted in 12-month intervals and is recertified each year.

Deferments: These allow you to temporarily postpone payments in specific situations. During the deferment of an unsubsidized loan, you will be responsible for all interest which accrues. Interest which is unpaid at the end of the deferment period will be capitalized (added to the principal balance of your loan).

The following is a list of deferment options available:

In School – Full Time	In School – Half Time	Internship/Residency
Unemployment	Temporary Total Disability	Graduate Fellowship
Armed Forces	Economic Hardship	Teacher Shortage
Working Mother	Parental Leave	Rehabilitation Training
Public Health Service	Peace Corps	Tax Exempt Organization
Action Programs	NOAA	Military

Forbearance: This allows you a temporary reduction or postponement of your loan payments. However, during a period of forbearance, you are responsible for the interest that accrues. We will add (capitalize) any unpaid interest to your principal balance at the end of your forbearance. The following is a list of forbearance options:

Economic Hardship	Financial Hardship	Disaster
Internship/Service	National and Community Service

Loan Discharge Options: The discharge of a student loan is possible under circumstances such as disability, death, unauthorized signature/payment, school closure, or certain situations involving a school's improperly admitting a student or endorsing funds. If your loan is discharged and found to be based on any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements, you may be subject to civil and criminal penalties under applicable federal law.
