Forum Guidelines

Lolcows are people and groups whose eccentric or foolish behavior can be "milked" for amusement and laughs. They are not countries, political figures, celebrities, your highschool bully, or some random YouTuber who doesn't involve himself in drama.

- Be civil.
Don't get angry over Lolcows. If you need to tell people you're better than someone, you're probably not.
- Hide your powerlevel.
Avoid revealing intimate, embarrassing details about yourself. This is not your blog and we are not an asylum.
- Don't backseat moderate.
You are not a moderator. You do not decide if a thread is to remain open or not. You do not decide if someone is a lolcow or not.
- Don't white knight.
Don't turn threads into an intervention. If you want to help, contact them privately. True lolcows reject advice.
- Do not create topics about forum members.
If you believe someone discovered by their account on the forum deserves a thread, ask staff first.
- No trolling plans.
We are not an autistic Illuminati. If you embarrass yourself or the forum trying to troll, we will ridicule you.
- Topic titles should contain aliases.
Keep thread titles as brief as possible and use all their different usernames.
- Archive everything.
Use archival tools to preserve content forever. Upload directly to posts where applicable.

This isn't a troll account cutting him down a peg?

He posted this on his own account? Voluntarily?

His mother should've left his father for a Turk when she had the chance.

Nope, this is legit him. He's even friends with this account on his "George Schnoz" one. It's his "public" account.

So I guess this means Maddox's mom won't be delivering him his soup and correspondence any time soon?

I actually thought the same thing as Asterick when I saw that. What a buffoon. Leave your mother alone; she can't save your shitty site.

"George Schnoz" was his idea?

I thought that was just @TakeDownMan teasing him about his unfortunate Middle-Eastern features.

Maddox seems like the type of guy who would have gone all grammar nazi on his mom for using "your" instead of "you're" and not having punctuation.

Maybe he's saving it for later. But yeah picking on your own mom is pretty fucking dumb, regardless of how you feel about her.

Nope. Maddox is fairly self aware. He knows he has a small penis, he knew he was a fatty when he was a fatty, He knows he's bald and it doesn't look cool on him, and he knows he had a giant hook knows that would make any israli feel like a beauty queen.

Which means he also knows every bit of shit that has been talked about him is true.

I wonder what it feels like to know you were a comedy legend once but didn't make any money because 'values', then finally found a way to make money, then turned on your 'values' to get more money.

He knows his fans are jumping ship. He knows he is not going to have another viral video hit again. He knows bitches aren't with him for his looks and his efame is fleeting fast. He knows his book is doomed because the exceptional individual couldn't manage his brand and fake not being a shit head to his co-host for 5 fucking minutes (which must really suck when you are selling out everything about yourself). He knows he's a petulant child and where as it was endearing and funny before, it is old and annoying now. He knows he can dish it but can't take it. He knows he fucked up. He knows if he wants to tard cum his efame cow for every last drop he can't say he fucked up.

What's gonna be really funny is when he hit 45-50 and wants to settle down and have a family, but he spent so much of his life being a manchild and not giving himself any kind of out or gracefully transitioning his trolling in to anything maintainable like a "daily show" or book series, or even steady writting gig and is all out of material because he's not the same person he was 20 years ago and back himself into too many corners.

You could say that for most lolcows around his age. However the difference between them and him, as you said, is that he's actually aware of his flaws. And yet, he doesn't really improve them, just like every other cow out there. About the only one I can think of is that he dropped the weight, but everything else seems like he either stagnated or made worse. His behavior being the most obvious facet of this change.

I don't think it was posted yet, so here is another amusing snippet from the old days. Around September of 2015, Maddox was making a Blender tutorial for his Twitch stream, and his choice of 3D modeling subject matter gravitated towards the autistic.

And here I thought he was being ironic with that Sonic model.

Should've seen that one coming I suppose.

Looking at this thread makes me die a little inside as I used to be very enthusiast about the best page of the universe. Of course I wasn't fooled, I knew something started to smell fishy. As a perceptive shark, I knew this guy jumped me right when he uploaded this painfully cringy Bin Laden death anniversary video. Not only it highlighted him as the exceptional adolescent he is, but as a politically correct scum he longed to become.

Osama bin Laden Death Day Cookies!

An once witty troll of the early Internet age is now deconstructing his own myth and dropping it on a cesspool, in a pathetic attempt to stay relevant. Him moving to a debate format he can't control completely sissified him, which is ironic for someone who represented himself as a ballsy pirate at one point.

He simply betrayed his old audience in attempt to secure a new one for himself; Indeed I envisioned him as a conservative, one-man ranter even more so after he tore BuzzFeed a new one. The later drama discussed on this channel proves that he's a hypocrite no better than this shit clickbait website. Thankfully, I have listened to none of his podcasts.

I'd rather forget the man, Ouzounian, and focus on the antisocial deadpan comic persona who entertained me with his sheer observational retorts about women's poor taste in fashion or goofy car designs. All that's left of George's former rags now reeks of sweat

Maddox has made a new video in which he attempts to cling to relevancy by rehashing (some might say plagiarising) his decade-old "Regressive Party" article. It was funnier and more relevant then, when abortion was a real hot topic issue; now it's just stale and unoriginal.

I see a complete lack of energy in this video. He needs to change things up for his sake, as he's liable to lose his fan base.

Seriously, least he could have done is watch some tutorials on how to properly use the program first.

Nah, he'll just sit out and then join whatever bandwagon afterwards.

About Us

Founded as the CWcki Forums, and originally dedicated to Christian Weston Chandler, the Kiwi Farms is about eccentrics on the Internet. These people are commonly referred to as Lolcows and are fascinating for reasons distinct to each spectator. We document the phenomenon, with every member bringing different perspectives and opinions to discussion. It is this diversity which has caused our peculiar community to thrive.
